garet Drew company in repertoire. The name of McKee Rankin has been familiar to playgoers of this country for the past generation and a half and is associated with some of the most successful and notable productions in the history of the American stage. Men of advanced American stage. Men of advanced age remember this capable exponent of the art histrionic in the lead roles in "The Dainties," "49," "The Canuck" and other popular plays. He toured the country time and again and was the first actor manager to present Nance O'Neil, whom he made a star and who, since that time, has become one of the first luminaries, In the legitimate field Mr. Ran-will be remembered by playgoers of three years ago for her admirable interpretation of the leading woman part in "The Third Defree." She has been playing with Mr. Rankin in San Francisco for some time past. "Magda" will be presented at the Nevada on Monday evening and Rankin will play his old role of Schwartze, in which he has appeared over 500 times. Miss Drew will have the title role. Among the other plays to be staged during the week are Walter's great play "Paid in Full" on Tuesday; "The Fires of St. John" on Wednesday, "Oliver Twist," "The Dainties," and "Above the Law."
